

BUSINESS CONTROL PLANS LAID BEFORE M.P.'S

WHEAT TO-DAY AT DOLLAR AT CHICAGO

May Delivery Mounts to That Figure as Day's Trading in Windy City Ends

RISE RECORDED AT WINNIPEG

Chicago, April 12.—Wheat sold for a dollar a bushel on the Board of Trade here to-day for the first time since January 11.

A sharp upward spurt of the market shortly before the closing bell carried May wheat to the dollar mark while July and September contracts came within fractions of the figure. The volume of trade expanded greatly in the final upward sweep of the market.

A group of bullish factors headed by the prediction of Dunn and Bradstreet that a pronounced business improvement would occur combined to cause the seventh rush of buyers to the wheat pit.

At a high of $1.00 1/2, May wheat showed a 2 1/2-cent jump for the day. Wheat at Minneapolis sold as much as $1.10, while the top reached at Kansas City was $1.00 1/2.

AT WINNIPEG
Winnipeg, April 12.—Wheat values closed with net gains of 1/2 to 3/4 cent on the Winnipeg Grain Exchange to-day. A sudden last-minute burst of buying wound up a previously featureless session. Chicago's swift upward surge prompted the buying here.

Prices closed near the day's top figures. May at 90 and July 90 1/2 cents.

Plea Made For Camp Strikers

Delegation Here To-day to Submit Brief to Government

Representing trades and labor groups, industrial workers and unemployed organizations, a "committee of action" arrived here from Vancouver to-day to appeal on behalf of the relief camp strikers, of whom 1,700 are now incarcerated in the minimum city.

They requested an interview with Premier Pattullo. The Premier was busy in executive council this morning, but arranged to see the delegates this afternoon.

They had a variety of points to submit to the government. Three most important were:

That the government should feed the strikers while they are out of the camps.

That the government should put no obstacle in the way of the success of the strike, either by police or military force, and that any strikers already taken into custody should be released.

That labor organizations or the camp men themselves be given representation on the federal commission now investigating the camps.

Following the interview, Premier Pattullo would make no comment this morning.

It was plainly intimated, however, that the government was not likely to change its original stand now that it has been given warning before they left camp.

TREE PLANTED IN PARK GROVE

Lord Baden-Powell Displays His Ability in Woodcraft at Beacon Hill

Planting of an oak tree in the Mayors' Grove in Beacon Hill Park, a ceremony specially reserved for distinguished visitors to Victoria, was performed at 2:15 o'clock this afternoon by the World's Chief Scout, Lord Baden-Powell. It was a demonstration of woodcraft worthy of a member of the virile Boy Scout organization of which he is the founder and leader and watched by a large gathering.

The master of ceremonies was Aid. John Worthington, chairman of the city parks board.

Another visit was paid by Lord Baden-Powell during the forenoon to the dentist for the treatment of an infected tooth, which is proving rather troublesome, but it is no way interfering with his programme.

INTRIGUED BY FISH
Lord Baden-Powell is expected this afternoon to keep a promise to his daughter-in-law to go on a final fishing trip on Saanich inlet.

He was out on the Arm yesterday afternoon with Lieutenant-Governor J. W. Penderham Johnson and Major James Wile, and had a fair catch of fish.

The party went to Mount Newton this afternoon where Lady Baden-Powell had tea with Mrs. H. H. Cole, president of the Victoria Yacht Club.

Big Increase In Business Forecast

Sharpest Rise in Twenty-five Years Predicted For U.S. By Dun and Bradstreet

Associated Press
New York, April 12.—The sharpest business rise in twenty-five years was forecast for the immediate future in the weekly business review by Dun and Bradstreet to-day.

"More convincing proof has come forward that the passing of March left behind the loss for the year," the review stated.

"During the year there was a complete transformation of sentiment, as the hopes for a rather far-reaching improvement were replaced by a realization that the immediate future is to bring the sharpest rise that has been witnessed in business in the past quarter of a century."

The review added that the rise

CLIPPER PLANE TUNED FOR PACIFIC FLIGHT

Scheduled to take off from California soon for Honolulu, the great new Pan-American Airways flying boat is pictured above. The date of departure was postponed as several letters from points throughout the United States might reach the coast and be put aboard the clipper. Many people are sending letters as souvenirs of the opening of the transpacific service.

Fourteen Students Killed When Train Smashes Into Bus

Ghastly Scenes at Rockville, Md., When Baltimore and Ohio Flyer Cuts School Car in Half; Fifteen Survive Accident

Rockville, Md., April 12.—The bodies of fourteen high school students who met death when an express train crashed their school bus late yesterday evening, lay in an improvised morgue in a quiet funeral home to-day, while anguished parents went about the task of identifying them.

Fifteen other occupants of the bus, including the driver and the teacher in charge, were suffering from various injuries and shock, but with the exception of two students in a hospital at Washington, all were able to reach their homes at Williamsport, Md.

One of the latter, Margaret Cross, was reported to be suffering from internal injuries and the extent of her injuries was not definitely known. The other, Jane Staley, who suffered a broken arm, was said to be out of danger.

The driver of the bus, Percy Line,

Terrific Struggle With Maniac Told

Man Who Shot at Police, Tore Steel Beds From Cell, Ripped Clothes From Constable, and Tore Straitjacket Into Shreds, Lodged in Mental Hospital

Now a raving maniac shot twice at a provincial constable attempting to arrest him, attacked the constable and tore his clothes from him, and then ripped to shreds a straitjacket in which he was harrowed, was told in a report received at headquarters here from Constable Thomas Smith, of the Ocean Falls detachment of the provincial police.

For their work in placing the man safely in the Mental Hospital, Constable Smith and Probationer K. O. Alexander were given mention in general orders, and commended by Commissioner J. H. McMillin. It is the fourth occasion on which Constable Smith, a stocky Scotsman, has been mentioned in general orders.

The constable was summoned to take charge of the man, who was shooting at W. G. Smith, the cabin of his patrol car, while it was moving alongside several others at the Ocean Falls wharf. The patient was a full-grown man, five feet tall and weighed 150 pounds.

CONSTABLE'S STORY
The following account from his report tells the story in Constable Smith's own words:

"I proceeded to the dock on the waterfront, where I heard a commotion coming from a boat. I started to cross to other boats to get to the boat in question, when two other men fired. I immediately made a dash for cover."

Then proceeding to the P.M.I. and arrested Probationer Alexander. I told him

NEW PRINCIPAL FOR M'GILL

Montreal, April 12.—Arthur Ernest Morgan, M.A., principal of University College, Hull, England, has been appointed principal and vice-chancellor of McGill University to succeed the late General Sir Arthur Currie. It was announced to-day by E. W. Beatty, R.C., chancellor of the institution.

ANTI-WAR PARADE ENDS UP IN FIGHT

Associated Press
Chicago, April 12.—A free for all fight, with sticks, stones, eggs and stench bombs as weapons, broke out on the University of Chicago campus to-day when a group of 500 students attempted to stop a parade after an anti-war meeting in Mandel Hall.

While several demonstrators had cracked heads, none were reported seriously injured.

Man Found Dead In Royal City

New Westminster, April 12.—The body of David Horner, 35-year-old, found dead in a hotel room yesterday evening with a chloroform-soaked sponge fastened across the mouth by adhesive tape and a rubber bathing cap covering the face, rested in an undertaking parlor to-day. He was a son of David W. Horner, M.P. for Brandon, Manitoba.

Coroner E. H. McEwan stated he was not sure whether an "inquest" would be necessary.

Dr. D. A. Clark, who examined the body, said Horner had been dead about twelve hours when the tragedy was discovered.

Police, who are investigating, said two letters were found beside the body, one addressed to his brother, George Horner, of Vancouver.

T. MOONEY ASKS HABEAS CORPUS

San Rafael, Calif., April 12.—Almost without sight of the grey walls of San Quentin prison, in which he has spent the last eighteen years, Thomas J. Mooney to-day started another legal battle in an attempt to erase from his name the conviction for the deaths of ten persons in the bombing of the July 27, 1916, Preparedness Day parade in San Francisco.

Following the suggestion of the Supreme Court of the United States, his attorney filed a petition for a writ of habeas corpus in the superior court here.

EVIDENCE TOTALS 7,000,000 WORDS

Ottawa, April 12.—The royal commission on price spreads and hoarding compiled eleven members of Parliament. The chairman was W. W. Kennedy, Conservative member for Winnipeg South Centre. Other Conservatives on the commission were Hon. H. H. Stevens (East Kootenay), J. L. Barbeau (Champlain, Que.), Thomas Bell (Saint John-Albert), E. J. A. M. Edwards (Waterloo South, Ont.), and Mack Genn (Waldman, Ont.).

Liberal members on the commission were Samuel Factor (Toronto West Centre), James L. Halsey (Hastings-Kings, N.B.), O. L. Boulanger (Bellevue, Que.), and E. J. Young (Weyburn, Sask.).

D. H. Kennedy (Peace River, Alta.), U.F.A. member on the commission.

The commission, which sat as a parliamentary committee and royal commission on the 12th day, took more than 7,000,000 words of evidence. It investigated more than a dozen of the important industries of Canada.

GOLD OUTPUT RISES SHARPLY

British Columbia gold production in January was practically one-quarter greater than in the corresponding month of 1934, according to figures compiled by the Department of Mines. The January output is given as 25,715 ounces, compared to 20,715 ounces the previous January. The average price secured was $42.35 an ounce.

Wide Proposals For New Commercial-Industrial Rules Brought Forward

More Direct Intervention of Government in Business Throughout Canada Recommended by Price Spreads Commission, Which Held Lengthy Investigation; Liberals Join in Suggesting Federal Trade Commission, But Differ With Conservatives as to Some Details; Recommendations for Control of Stock Set-up of Companies Are Comprehensive

LIBERALS MAKE RESERVATIONS

Canadian Press
Ottawa, April 12.—First disagreement with some recommendations in the majority report of the price spreads commission, doubts as to the efficiency of others and alternative suggestions of methods, are contained in the reservations with which three Liberal members of the commission signed the report tabled in the Commons this afternoon.

The commissioners who made the reservations are O. L. Boulanger, Bellevue, Que.; Sam Factor, Toronto West Centre, and J. L. Halsey, Hastings-Kings, N.B.

On the creation of a federal trade and industry commission, the three Liberals are in agreement with their fellow commissioners. They object, however, to this body being permitted to recommend the recognition of combines, and urge it should operate under the supervision of Parliament and not of the Governor-in-Council. They do not doubt the constitutional validity of such a commission, but they urge that all constitutional points be settled by a competent authority before legislation is enacted.

On the proposed livestock board and fisheries control board the three Liberals are in flat disagreement. They believe the functions proposed for the livestock board and fisheries board are now being performed or are capable of being performed by the Department of Agriculture. They believe the fisheries control board would do more harm than good.

Two little emphasis is placed on external markets in the report. The Liberals assert, loss of foreign markets being in a search for price-raising methods, is a source of concern to Canadians primary producers. They also object to a tendency to over-stress marketing methods and pay too little attention to the work of the consumer received in the report.

They claim, his interests being over-looked in a search for price-raising methods. What was needed was not necessarily a raising of prices, but an adjustment of prices between different groups of commodities, they were.

TABLES BULKY REPORT IN COMMONS

Dealing with specific industries, Mr. Young said the plight of Ontario and Quebec tobacco growers was over-production, and he found "there is no evidence the tobacco manufacturers were exploiting the growers."

Ottawa, April 12.—"We feel strongly," said the price spreads commission's report tabled in the Commons to-day, "that if our millers, companies should not be permitted to make unauthorized use of their shareholders' money" for market speculation. BIG BLUE BOOK SETS RECORDS

Canadian Press
Ottawa, April 12.—Long steps in direction of state control of industry and commerce in Canada motivated by the twin objectives of assuring workers and primary producers a larger return for their work and of protecting consumers against profiteering whether by the sale of inferior products, exorbitant prices or stock-jobbing are recommended in the report of the royal commission on price spreads and mass buying tabled in the House of Commons by Minister of Trade and Commerce Hanson this afternoon.

Stresa, Italy, April 12.—The British announced to-day that Germany was ready to enter an eastern European pact of non-aggression over through other signatories "stipulate among themselves accords of reciprocal assistance."

This news was given to the world in an official communique issued by the heads of governments of Italy, Great Britain and France, assembled here in an effort to smooth out the path of European peace.

The conference itself was informed of the German decision by Sir John Simon, British Foreign Secretary, who said the information had been given to the British Ambassador at Berlin by Countess von Helldorf, British-Frencher Hitler's Foreign Minister.

The announcement followed a statement by Pierre Laval, French Foreign Minister, that the representatives of the three nations assembled here had reached an agreement among themselves as to the programme they shall follow in the meeting next week at Geneva of the League of Nations Council.

A French spokesman said a "step in advance" had been made which may permit the revival of the proposed eastern Locarno pact, sponsored by France and Russia in an effort to bring about a general agreement between the nations of Europe.

THE SPIRIT OF COMPROMISE

FROM STRESS CAME NEWS TODAY
 That a spirit of compromise appeared to dominate the second day of the tri-partite conference and that there is a hopeful prospect that the powers taking part in it will be able to agree on a united front on European peace problems before they suspend their conversations to-morrow night.

Some fairly solid foundation may be found for this prospect in the announcement that France has agreed to abandon her intention of presenting a strong resolution at next week's meeting of the Council of the League of Nations concerning Germany's re-armament policy, which, of course, is a direct contravention of the military provisions of the Treaty of Versailles. Another hopeful note is struck—the suggestion may or may not be inspired by The London Times, which foresees the possibility of a second meeting of the powers, comparable in objectives to that now under way at Stresa, but at which Germany would be represented.

From British quarters comes the statement that Great Britain is determined to demonstrate her solidarity with France and Italy and to contribute in every way as a member of the League of Nations to collective security in Europe. Italy, incidentally, seems to have been converted to the British idea of a general European security agreement as contrasted with limited military alliances. There ought to be no question at all on this point. The old balance of power idea, one group of nations set against another group of nations, belongs to another day. Revive it, and war is inevitable, for the reason that all the nations will remain armed to the teeth.

Collective security in Europe can not be guaranteed by Britain, France and Italy alone. Any agreement designed to produce this desired effect, naturally, to be really effective, must be subscribed to by Germany and Russia, while Poland, with the five great powers in agreement, would hardly like to be left out in the cold.

Germany's procedure during the last few weeks, of course, has badly rocked the European boat and given everybody a chronic attack of the jitters. She has broken her word and, outwardly, at any rate, is maintaining a turbulent attitude. Apparently all the resolutions of the League of Nations and diplomatic notes which may be addressed to her will make no difference. Hitler has his hand on the tiller of the Prussian ship of state and is challenging the rest of the world to desert him from the course he has chosen.

With this condition existing, therefore, Britain, France and Italy are confronted with two courses if Hitler should still further violate the Treaty of Versailles. Either they must use force, economically or by the employment of arms, or in other ways convince him that he will not only be serving his country well but also will be serving the cause of lasting peace if he shall join with the rest and help to bring into reality the objective the powers represented at Stresa have set themselves. Force is out of the question.

UNEMPLOYMENT AND DEVELOPMENT

 are looking to public works programmes for the solution of the unemployment problem. The United States is leading the world in the matter of expenditure. Great Britain is a close second, and Canada, while hesitant, is studying similar ways and means.

The Washington $4,880,000,000 appropriation is to be applied in various ways, but a very large part of it is to be used for public works. One of Great Britain's chief outlays has been on the clearance of slums and the launching of programmes of home construction in congested communities. Improvement of the highways, together with the building of new roads, to relieve the traffic burden of the old arterial thoroughfares, also is an important part of Britain's public works policy.

A full-dress debate took place in the British House of Lords recently in which the Marquess of Lothian emphasized the argument that there was far more to be said for national development than most people were willing to admit. He said he looked forward to the day when practically everybody in Great Britain would possess an automobile. He referred specifically to Canada and the United States where at the present time a second-hand motor car could be purchased for a comparatively few dollars. He visualized a Britain enjoying similar luxuries and told the members of the Red Chamber that "when that day comes, the roads of this country will be found hopelessly inadequate."

The Marquess of Lothian declared that on any soundly-developed policy of national development at least fifty or sixty per cent of the expenditure would be financially remunerative, that it would pay interest and sinking fund on itself. "Take even roads," he said, "everybody pays a toll to go on the roads in the form of the horse-power tax; roads are built, on the whole, out of revenue." To his fellow peers he elaborated his argument as follows:

"Road-making is financially remunerative as long as there is an expansion in the number of people going on the roads. A great deal of the capital put into agriculture, roads and railways—improvement of the latter by electrification—will be remunerative. On the other hand, every man takes off the dole saves the nation seventy pounds a year. I believe that for every million pounds between six and seven thousand people are brought into employment on schemes of national development."

"The official figure is 4,000, but if the noble Lords are correct in their estimates—that the well-paid working man is fortunate if he gets £150 a year—then, inasmuch as most of the money that is spent is ultimately expended in wages, if £150 is an average,

6,000 people are given employment for every million pounds spent on national development."

This debate in the British House of Lords is of interest to Canada as a whole, while we, in British Columbia, are especially concerned about our highways. We are trying to induce tourists to come to this province. Our main attractions consist of a summer climate that is all that could be desired, unparalleled scenery, and a variety of recreational facilities. The great bulk of our tourists, however, come on wheels, and it is upon the condition of our roads that this highly-remunerative holiday business largely depends.

The best advertising this province can have is the improvement of our highways, particularly those which lead to our many scenic beauty spots. Road work, therefore, not only returns the money expended upon it in one way or another, but provides employment for thousands now out of work. Many there are in relief camps at an aggregate large expense for which there is absolutely nothing to show save a crop of discontent—a menacing situation that will not be relieved until the government at Ottawa, in co-operation with the provinces, shows a good deal more vision than it has done in the last few years.

CANCER'S TOLL

 form us that in the year 1933, no fewer than 10,646 people in Canada died from cancer. In the same year, the toll in British Columbia alone was 811, or more than 200 in excess of the number of people who succumbed to tuberculosis.

It should be noted, moreover, that since 1926, when there were 7,614 deaths in the Dominion from cancer, the rate has been increasing annually. In 1927 the total deaths amounted to 7,919, in 1928 it had reached 8,514, in 1929, 9,273 and 9,578 in 1931. It will not be surprising, therefore, if at the end of the present year the 11,000 mark will have been passed.

Cancer is second only to heart disease as a scourge. Two years ago heart disease meant the death of as many as 13,734, but while this ailment's increase in mortality has been about twenty per cent since 1926, cancer's increase has been nearly forty per cent—or just about double.

This is a painful reminder of the oft-repeated assertion that we know very little more about the cause and cure of cancer than we did half a century ago. The statement may be somewhat extravagant; but the figures which give us the annual death toll stand out in front of us and may not be ignored.

Take the growing toll in British Columbia over ten years. Here it is:

Year	Deaths
1924	467
1925	478
1926	608
1927	517
1928	676
1929	680
1930	708
1931	724
1932	703
1933	812

In the ten years, therefore, there were 6,246 deaths from cancer in British Columbia, the toll having grown from 457 in 1924 to 811 in 1933. No stronger case than this could be made out in support of the Cancer Fund which is being raised to mark the silver anniversary of the accession of King George.

ALL FOR PEACE

THE ANNOUNCEMENT WAS MADE IN
 London on Thursday that the Peace Ballot issued by the League of Nations Union has been concluded with the marking of 5,500,000 ballots by persons eighteen years of age and over. This represents approximately one-eighth of the population of Great Britain and may be considered a very remarkable showing.

The majority is in favor of Britain continuing her membership in the League of Nations and peace policies generally figuratively smothered the vote of opponents. One of the striking features of the ballot was the number who voted in favor of military action against an aggressor nation. A little less than four million voted for the application of this remedy against a breaker or breakers of the peace, while 4,374,705 favored the immediate employment of economic sanctions against the aggressor.

Although the effect of the Peace Ballot on the government of the day may not be noticeable for the time being, in view of the large volume of public opinion expressed by it, it can be assumed that Britain's foreign policy will be one of the dominant issues at the next general election. The vote is an arresting manifestation of a definite anti-war feeling in Great Britain.

WHAT OTHER PAPERS SAY

OPENING THE NORTH

The Regina Leader-Post.

Seven years ago after years of almost heart-breaking effort, the discoverers of the great Flin Flon mine with their associates finally saw the commencement of the huge development which marked the cracking open of the pre-cambrian on the Manitoba-Saskatchewan boundary. In the eight years $25,000,000 has been poured into that development and from it flows a return reaching nearly to $5,000,000 annually. Thirteen hundred men and a town of the population of 1,000 people marks what was eight years ago nothing but a small shaft, rock, lake and bush.

INCONSISTENT

The Halifax Herald.

Both the World Court and the International Labor Office are associated with the League of Nations; and just how the United States can justify avoidance of "entangling alliances" as far as the World Court is concerned, at the same time willing right into "entangling alliances" where the International Labor Office is concerned, passes the comprehension of people able to read and understand plain language. As a matter of fact, as everyone will realize, the International Labor body is the more likely to produce international friction—because questions dealt with by that body go to the very roots of the political organizations of certain of its member states.

Loose Ends

The city is round over a great issue—Victoria's old reputation is becoming a myth—We lose our old neighborhood—and we must on old prospect— and we practice false economy.

By BRUCE BUTCHERSON

ROUSED

ONE COMES BACK to the big city to find it round over a great issue, which fills the correspondence columns of the newspapers and seems to be so interesting to the men on the street as the weather or the depression. The argument is whether the new Governor-General should be a Canadian or not, and one imagines that the new Governor-General would be more interested if he could hear it.

But much more intriguing is Victoria's attitude towards the present Governor-General, now departing for his last tribute to the departing representative of the King was a glorious flop. They tell me that where usually thousands of eager and patriotic Victorians swarm to the Parliament Buildings to stand the royal reception, a bare 300 turned up on the other evening, and some of them were military men who had to go.

This is a highly significant phenomenon which any observer of our current times is perfectly at liberty to discuss. There is no secret about it. Victoria, which used to pride itself on being the most English and the most patriotic city in the overseas Empire, just wouldn't turn out to be received by the Governor-General.

You can interpret this extraordinary occurrence as proof of peace and festivity, according to your own particular view of life. But you can't escape the fact that it was very unlike Victoria.

What we seem to be overlooking in this place is that Victoria is mortal like other places. Its people are born and grow up and die like other people and you can't stop them doing it. And that means that Victoria-to-day isn't the Victoria of twenty-five years ago. An entirely new generation is in charge now and another one is pressing hard on its heels.

These generations don't hold the same views as their grandfathers or their fathers. They are not English, Scottish, Welsh or Irish; they are Canadians. This you may find regrettable and a little sad and perhaps you are right; but it is inevitable. By the slow and insensible phenomenon of birth, maturity and death, Victoria is becoming more and more Canadian, more and more nationalistic, and less and less a part of the Old World every year. Its old reputation is, in becoming a pleasant myth. You can sigh about it, but you can't do anything about it.

Apparently you didn't even bother to attend the Governor's reception. Most likely you weren't missed.

NEIGHBORS

THE OTHER DAY, up by the Seventy-mile House, we met a fellow on a motorcycle. He had just left the main road after cutting across country, and we gave him a lift down towards Clinton. It developed that he had been carrying the mail and some provisions on his back into a settler's shack somewhere south of Green Lake. He said his friend, Joe, and family hadn't seen a paper for months and probably would be run down by the mail carrier. He collected the mail and munched two days of course. He just did it as a matter of course.

That is what you notice when you go out to the wilds and come back again to the world we proudly call civilization. The old instinct of neighborliness survives up there, coming down from the days of the frontier, the days when no man could survive without the help of his neighbor. People are friendly up there. They have time to talk to you. They stop to ask an answer to a question. They look at you and smile at you for dinner. They are sorry to see you go.

AFTER FIVE YEARS

BUT YOU COME BACK to the haunts of men to find, after five and a half years of depression, that there is less neighborliness in the world than ever, less goodwill, less fellowship between man and man. If you had been told in the autumn of 1929 that we were in for five and a half and, perhaps, more years of acute hard times, that a million Canadians would be on the dole and that most of us would be broke, you would have said that such a travesty would bring the human race together in its common misery, produce a new spirit of helpfulness and perhaps a rebirth of Christianity.

Just the opposite has occurred. The world has grown steadily harder-bodied, misery has turned men against men as never before and probably none here is less goodwill in his civilization now than at any time since it was a civilization. You grew used to the snarling, the chiding, and the back-stabbing after a while from long exposure to it; you only notice it after you have been beyond the pavement and seen how different the pavement is without our machinery, without our high culture, without our civilization.

MINER

NORTH OF THE SEVENTY, up to the north coast, we met an old prospector who was getting ready to start out into the hills again as soon as the snow would let him. Gravelly, confidential, he told us that he had followed mining all his life, making a stake in one prospect, spending it in the next on a prospecting expedition. He said he thought he had found something at last, and he had his hand vaguely to the eastward, in the direction of Howse. He intended to get a job up by Barriere if he could, and after making a hundred dollars or so, he would strike down into the Howse country.

He had worked at mining and prospecting all his life and I dare say he hadn't five dollars to his name. But when I landed back in Vancouver I met half a dozen fellows, hailing about in steam-heated offices, who had just made thousands of dollars by the upping in the mining stock. They had done it by sitting in their offices and telephoning a broker. Why, even Golden Cal had gone up in my absence until it may get almost as much for it as I paid in the first place, a reasonable achievement. Several fortunes were made in Vancouver last week. Our old prospector friend is probably tramping through the snow up there now, looking for a job at $4 a day so that he can go prospecting for gold again. This is the economic situation of opportunity.

TOO CHEAP

SOME FELLOW has told the House of Commons in Ottawa that ministers should work for nothing. What he probably meant was that anyone should be paid nothing but that they should work as hard as the House of Commons. He should be paid a great deal more than that. They receive now, in fact, by announcing how and how that our legislators, federal and provincial, are grossly underpaid and their wages should be advanced immediately. A government which would raise them would be hurriedly from office, but it should be performing an invaluable public service.

We pay our Members of Parliament $3,000 a year and then ask them to leave their families in Ottawa, to leave their business there, to leave their homes in Ottawa and to live at home on $3,000 a year must keep a man so worried that he can't think about parliamentary business at all.

The result of the system is that we usually send an inferior type of man to Ottawa. It is an open secret throughout British Columbia that no political party is satisfied with its nominated candidates. The men who should represent this province in the next Parliament won't run because they simply can't afford to do it. Raise the indemnity to about $10,000 a year and you will get a good Parliament. The extra expense in comparison with the intelligence of the new Parliament will be trifling.

Here in British Columbia we pay our provincial legislators $1,000 a year. That may be all right for a Victoria member, but go up-country, travel around a bit and you will see that the citizens are sufficient to cover the member's travelling expenses. He can't come down to a session here and cover his district once a year on $1,000. The best men stay home. The results are familiar.

CHURCH AND UNEMPLOYED

To the Editor:—A week ago you were kind enough to publish a letter I wrote you on the church and its attitude towards the unemployed.

After from lack of interest in the subject or from inability to explain their failure, no one in any branch of the church has answered me.

Surely among the many there is one who will try and answer this challenge. I have of no university degree, so if they have the slightest proof of any united effort on the part of the church to meet the call to work on behalf of the poor worker living on relief or proudly starving without help, I can be easily satisfied.

This is not an attack on any minister or branch of any church, but a direct challenge to the Church as a whole, that it is passing up the greatest opportunity in its history.

Or all the public funds raised by subscription this is the only one concerning which no statement has been published. Until such a statement has been issued and until we learn from the mayor in detail what is proposed to be done with the money as may be suggested by the new campaign, the public cannot fairly be expected to subscribe. Are YOU worn out with pain—nervous, irritable, depressed all day—sleepless at night? Then read Mr. Weston's letter and think what a few drops of Phosferine a day may do for you.

"I was distracted and hammered with unceasing pain of Neuralgia in my face, causing me to be very restless, sleepless, and 'fed-up,' until I was advised to try Phosferine daily, and within a short time after taking it, I felt my nerves wonderfully benefited. I feel a new man and owe it to Phosferine that I hold out and resist Grippe successfully, and withstand the usual winter chills, Rheumatism, and Sciatica, etc. I had been suffering from Grippe and nerve exhaustion, and I feel that without the help of Phosferine my nerves would not have stood the strain. Ultimatum On
Name Change

The Oak Bay Council will not consider any request to change the name of Paul Bay Road unless such a request is made by Oak Bay property owners residing on the road, who have a name to suggest.

This was the ultimatum gathered yesterday when the council received a second letter from the Gonzales Community Association requesting a change in the name of the road, to be arranged at a meeting between a delegation from the association and the council.

The association sought the change to conform with recent alterations made by Ottawa authorities in changing the name of the bay and by the B.C. Electric, which has changed the destination placard on No. 6 cars to "Gonzales."

Berlin, April 12.—M. Behrens, Berlin correspondent of The National Zeitung of Basel, yesterday was ordered expelled from Germany. The International Press Federation asked that the terms of the expulsion order be modified to give him time to arrange his personal affairs in Berlin.

Conservative Speaker Declares Fraser Bridge "Bitter Pill" For Liberals

Money allocated for the new Fraser River bridge could be spent to better advantage on road work where it would provide the greatest amount of employment, declared Hugh Allan, president of the Victoria Conservative Association in an address to the Conservative Women's Club yesterday evening.

The bridge project involved high costs for materials as well as the various commissions and the fullest advantage would not be secured from the money in giving jobs, he claimed.

Mr. Allan analyzed the attitude of Liberal members toward the bridge project, declaring the whole idea seemed to be a bitter pill for the party as a whole. Members were torn between party loyalty and the knowledge that their constituencies did not want the bridge, he asserted.

Bryon Johnson, M.P. for Victoria, had been in the position of realizing his own constituency did not favor the structure, but as a business man of New Westminster, he was virtually interested in the bridge.

Mr. Allan conceded that a remedy for the present bridge situation at New Westminster was necessary. The Toole government had proposed two solutions: either a new bridge at Ladner, or giving notice to the railway companies to vacate the present bridge within three years in which case the structure would have ample room for road traffic.

The speaker also referred to G. G. McGeer's attitude toward municipal debt, which he said, was injuring credit in British Columbia, and also to Premier Hogg's action in Ontario, repudiating power contracts.

All these were policies of destruction, compared with the security afforded by the Federal Government, Mr. Allan said.

"Those things that are safe and solid, mark the true Conservative who is not afraid to move with the times but is not carried away by every wind of the whisp," he concluded.

REMAINS OF TRAPPER FOUND

Nelson, B.C., April 12.—Discovery of a few scattered bones, a pack sack, gun, trapper's license and other effects, near Apex, about eight miles south of Nelson, by Robert Que, yesterday disclosed the fate of John Jackson McDougall, trapper, who had been missing since early in January. The remains were found about a mile from O'Grady's ranch and 100 yards from the Great Northern Railway track. The body had been dug up from underneath five feet of snow by coyotes.

The man evidently dropped beside the fence where he was walking. The snow was then about eighteen inches deep.

That the chief of police should instruct his men to keep a close supervision over the district where the cheaper class of saloons found; that some amendments to the licensing act are necessary to enable the commission to cancel licenses whenever they may think it expedient to do so, and that an intervention should be brought with the provincial government in the hope of securing these amendments, were conclusions reached at last evening's meeting of the city council, when consideration was given a letter which had been forwarded to the police commissioners by McCandless Bros. merchants of Johnson Street.

J. M. McKinnon of Vancouver, the well-known timber man with large interests throughout the province, lies at the St. Joseph's Hospital today with his right leg broken below the knee, which was due to his being knocked down by a rapidly driven automobile when he was crossing a street in front of the Empress Hotel. He was accompanied by Capt. Irving at the time, Capt. Irving, however, managed to get out of the way in time.

The chief of police yesterday afternoon examined thirty-five applicants for the position of patrolman, of which five are wanted, two mounted and three on foot. The appointments will be made by the commissioner to-morrow. The names of the men selected by the chief for submission to the police commission are: John M. Montgomery, 622 North Park Street; Charles Tennant, F. H. Smith, W. Baxter, 1124 Yates Street, and George Steadman.

The palm room of the Empress Hotel was all too small to accommodate the hundreds of people who wish to view the wonderful display of spring flowers which was on exhibition there. The affair was arranged and carried out by the King's Daughters, and much credit should be given them for such a wonderful showing.

There will be a speed test across the Pacific between the steamers Monticello of the C.P.R. line and the Tamba Maru, of the Nippon Yusen Kaisha, both steamers being bound for Yokohama, and both ships being ready to leave this port within the hour. DIKING PLAN
CONSIDERED

Saanich Officials and Land Owners Discuss Island View Beach Development

Further consideration of the proposal to dike lands fronting on Island View Beach in Ward No. 10, Saanich, was given at a meeting of municipal representatives and interested property owners at Royal Oak yesterday evening.

The meeting decided the carrying out of the work would be contingent upon the co-operation of the Department of Indian Affairs in agreeing to alleviate flood conditions on the Indian property adjoining the land which would be effected by the diking scheme.

It was pointed out that if beach-front property were diked according to the scheme presented by H. H. Allen, municipal engineer, to the council last week, flood conditions on the Indian land would still cause damage to the protected area during the rainy season.

Such a condition would mean the proposed drainage would not serve its full purpose and could only be made 100 per cent effective with the Indian Department's assistance.

GRANT SUGGESTED

A suggestion was made that the department might contribute between $1,000 and $1,500 to have the work done, or else have it completed under departmental supervision.

Property owners who attended the meeting were enthusiastic about the proposal, providing it could be completed at a minimum of cost. The plan calls for the draining of the area by municipal labor and the sawing for the cost of the work against the property benefited. This action is permissible under the Ditches and Water Courses Act.

The municipal council was represented at the meeting by H. H. Allen, Councillor J. C. Hagan, Clerk R. H. F. Sewell and Engineer H. H. Allen.

New Attack On Bright's Disease

By HOWARD W. BAKER, Associated Press Science Editor
Detroit, April 12.—A kidney extract which promises a treatment for incurable Bright's disease was reported for the first time at a meeting of the Federation of American Societies for Experimental Biology yesterday.

Bright's disease is one of the commonest causes of death in the United States. In acute form it may kill in a few months. When chronic it is likely to cause death in about two years.

The extract described to-day has been under strictly secret investigation for about three years, under sponsorship of the Chemical Foundation. It has been tried on human beings with both unusual and promising results.

It was given to persons in coma after hope had been abandoned. Some revived remarkably, but others were wholly unaffected. The reason for this difference is still sought.

To-day's report was a strictly scientific description for the first time of the nature and effects of the new substance. It was made before the Physiological Society by Dr. Benjamin Jablons, of New York City, who refrained from reporting any of the clinical work on human beings.

The extract was taken from kidneys of dogs, he reported. Extraction in pure form was still a difficult process. It causes a drop in blood pressure

Band in Saskatchewan Awarded $18,300 Judgment Against Government

Canadian Press
Prince Albert, Sask., April 12.—Judgment for $18,300 and costs was awarded members of the Mistawasis Indian band, near Leask, against the Federal Department of Indian Affairs by Mr. Justice F. R. Angus in the Saskatchewan Court, according to word received here yesterday.

Action for $20,000 was based on the promise made by the Indians to the government in 1914, when they agreed to accept the provisions of the Indian Act, in return for the government's promise to provide them with food, clothing, and shelter.

The successful action was based on the contention that the Indians had been misled by the government's promise to provide them with food, clothing, and shelter.

The judgment also restrains the Indian agent at Leask from farming on the reserve.

Canadian Press
Ottawa, April 12.—Pensions for the blind under a scheme approved by the old age pensions act will be studied by the House of Commons committee on industrial and international relations.

By unanimous vote the House yesterday sent the question back to the committee, which had reported in favor of extending the Old Age Pensions Act to blind persons over the age of forty. In sending the report back the House authorized the committee to recommend a special blind pension act applicable to the whole of Canada.

Young People's Societies

METROPOLITAN Y.P.S.
On Monday the Metropolitan Young People used as their theme "The Adventure of a Sky Pilot," with Dr. Kenney as the guest speaker. Albert Wood was in charge of the evening, ably assisted by Ella Waller. The Young People's Club sang as an anthem "Brightly Beams Our Father's Mercy." Mrs. A. Morton sang a solo and James Brown played a cornet solo. While the collection was being taken Mr. Edward Parsons played the organ. Mr. Parsons being also the organist for the church.

Dr. Kenney's message was taken by himself while on his mission trips up and down the island. He is the United Church minister for the West Coast of Vancouver Island.

Next week the council have a surprise for the young people. The meeting will be held in the schoolroom, and the theme is "A New Deal."

All young people are asked to be present, as several important items are to be discussed.

CENTENNIAL
Tuesday evening the Young People of Centennial United Church met in the parlour for their regular meeting. The opening exercises were in charge of Ernest Hatch, Jim McCague and Mildred Dixon. A vote of thanks was addressed to Bill Young for his interesting hour of the Royal Baccara. It was decided not to elect a president for the time being but to ask the vice-president, Miss Dorothy Harris, to carry on, assisted by Jim McCague.

The meeting listened to a very full description of conditions in the relief camps, given by one of those who have been in one of these camps and who acted for the relief of the Royal Baccara. A committee was named to go into the matter more thoroughly.

The main programme for the evening was a number of short talks on different hobbies of the members. Miss Ruth Edwards spoke on hard dressing, Wallace Allison on first aid and Frank Rollins on radio.

FIRST UNITED Y.P.S.
The young people of First United Church enjoyed a most interesting evening under the caption of citizenship night on Monday.

The committee, headed by Mr. William Findlay and Miss Emily Durkin, provided a series of moving pictures on Stanley Park in Vancouver, a trip through the Alaskan Wonderland, the Story in a Can of Salmon and the scenic beauties of Stuart Lake, which were all greatly enjoyed by the audience.

During the evening Miss Vera Bailey played piano numbers which elicited much applause, while Miss Janet Roy delighted the young people with her lovely soprano voice. The entertainment ended with a cornet solo. Refreshments were served at the close of the evening.

Next week the society is holding a springtime social, to which all members are invited.

Notice is directed to the hike to Wrights Lake on Good Friday. All those intending to go are asked to hand in their names to Mr. Bill Cox.

DOUGLAS STREET Y.P.
The Douglas Street Young People will hold their regular meeting this evening at 7:45. Miss Green recently will be the speaker and Miss Alice Russell will be in the chair. All the young people of the church and community are cordially invited.

Entertainers of China are working over the possibilities of decoration.

NEW INCOME TAX FOR CALIFORNIA

Associated Press
Sacramento, Calif., April 12.—The California Assembly, brushing aside every economic and political objection, voted yesterday, seventy to five, to pass an income tax on the state.

NATURE KNOWS BEST

When people are filthy with money and bonds,
Bowed down with a surplus of wealth,
Their habit of gorging on costly viands
Becomes a real menace to health.
And many fine citizens sicken and die
Because of a surfeit of lemon cream pie.

Demo Nature knows best with a beautiful smile
Upon her benevolent face
And, just when high living has lasted a while
And threatens to wipe out the race,
Along comes Depression, all over the land,
And cuts down the diet to what we can stand.

Courtesy Toronto "Telegram".

You, Nature does know best. Those who have followed my articles during the last few years will remember some facts I presented about the health of peoples in Europe during the war, forced by "food shortages" to live on rough, natural food, and how their health improved as a result. For instance, the Danes, faced with threatened starvation by the allied blockade, cut their rations to an amount and a change of quality that from the conventional viewpoint, rendered them inedible, and yet, in one year, the death rate fell over 34% and deaths from some diseases of degeneration of vital organs all but disappeared.

Now comes along the entertaining columnist of the Toronto Telegram with his timely little verse to point out what I have also mentioned before—that the depression has forced many people, against their will perhaps, to live on the simple, natural, inexpensive foods. As he cleverly puts it:

Along comes Depression, all over the land,
And cuts down the diet to what we can stand.

It was only about a year ago that the statement was made by the Surgeon-General of the U.S. that the health level of the people had not been so high in years as since the depression.

During my lectures in New York in February last, I dined each night for a week with a leading surgeon of the Women's Hospital, who told me his private practice has fallen to 15% of what it was before 1929. Also that while before the depression the Women's Hospital had to seek accommodation in private hospitals for surplus patients, now they have many idle beds.

It is true that in all countries which entered the war the general death rate fell markedly under food control and return to compulsory simple feeding habits.

It has been quite definitely shown that 80% of our food intake must be chosen from natural, vital and alkali-forming foods, to insure that the human food canal shall function as a life canal and not be transformed into a disease-and-death canal. Well, how much of the food intake of civilized people is natural, vital and alkali-forming? Only one to one-and-a-half per cent, even now when circumstances have forced a return to more simple and natural foods and feeding habits. When times are booming the percentage of denatured, devalitized and acid-forming foods rises almost to the elimination of natural, vital and alkali-forming foods. And with this also rises the death rate, because the food canal is by this means transformed into a disease-and-death canal.

One of the most impressive health lessons that can be learned by one who would be always well is that "a normal alkali reserve in the life stream (the blood) is nature's first defense against fatigue, disease and premature death."

I have written 8 books on health and have sold 125,000 sets of three of them, "HOW TO BE ALWAYS WELL" ($3.00), "MAKE YOUR MIND BUILD HEALTH" ($2.50) and "MASTER GUIDE TO PHYSICAL

Cameron Emslie Dies in New York

Canadian Press
New York, April 12.—Cameron Emslie, forty-one, writer, musician and former editor of The Scottish American, died yesterday after a lengthy illness.

Emslie came here fifteen years ago from western Canada, where he had spent his early years. He was born in Scotland, but was taken to Canada as a boy by his family. His father had a farm in Alberta.

He was an accomplished pianist and organist and was a writer for musical magazines. He also wrote extensively on Scottish themes.

He died yesterday, seventy to five, to pass an income tax on the state. The Charters bill, calling for a tax at one-third of the federal rate, was sent to the Senate, where it is reasonably certain of passage.

Two years ago the Legislature, composed of more conservative legislators, passed a similar tax bill, but it was vetoed by the late Governor Ralph.

The above is from a new photograph of Robt. G. Jackson, M.D., taken in his 77th year.

PERFECTION" ($2.50), these three constituting my philosophy of "natural health through natural living habits, leading to a natural immunity from disease." I have lived this philosophy to such health-building results that at 77 I stand before lecture audiences nightly for nine months each year, all over Canada and the U.S.A., and dare any disease, even a cold, to attack me.

I have a filing cabinet filled with eulogies of these books and the philosophy they present. But I have done a much greater work for humanity at least during the period of transformation of the civilized dietary from the present conventional, disease-inducing kind to the more sane and natural kind now in the offing, already practised by myself and many thousands who have found in it assurance from suffering, disease and a constant threat of death.

That work is the creation of alkali-forming grain foods, every morsel of which tends to build in the body "a normal alkali reserve, nature's first defense against fatigue, disease and premature death."

These foods are Roman Meal, Bekus-Puddy, Liehus and the alkali-forming beverage, Kofy-Suh. Inherent in these foods are vastly important potential blessings for everyone who has a medium of health understanding, as can be proved by anyone who will use them freely for at least two weeks. Of course, there are other alkali-forming foods that compare to the same end and I shall gladly send to anyone interested enough to write for it, a Bulletin on "alkali-forming foods" with a dissertation on their use. This information is worth hundreds of dollars but you can have it free for the asking, and other important Bulletins will accompany it. Address Robt. G. Jackson, M.D., 577 Vine Avenue, Toronto, Ont.

Rooms For Aged at New Westminster; For Boys at Coquitlam

Canadian Press
Vancouver, April 12.—Work on two new institutions to be established by the British Columbia Government at Coquitlam and New Westminster will be started at once, according to Hon. George M. Weir, Provincial Secretary.

A building to provide for 100 aged, who be built on government property in New Westminster, adjacent to the old mental hospital, at a cost of approximately $50,000, the minister said yesterday.

The cost of adapting unused cottages of the Boy Industrial School at Coquitlam as a tuberculosis sanatorium of 120 beds would be $60,000, he added.

The homes for the aged is to accommodate elderly persons now in institutions of Burnaby, who are not really ill, but suffering from loneliness. The sanatorium will be especially for chronic bed-ridden cases.

Construction will be carried by contract on tenders called for by the Public Works Department.

DROUGHT BILL IS APPROVED

Commons Sends Prairie Rehabilitation Measure to the Senate

Canadian Press
Ottawa, April 12.—Twenty-four hours after it was introduced the government's drought relief bill passed through the House of Commons yesterday. It had the blessing of all parties, but warnings were issued against building extravagant hopes.

The bill will appropriate $750,000 this year and $1,000,000 for each of the next four to fight drought in the prairie provinces. Dams will be built to store water, floodgates will be opened, trees will be planted and irrigation stations will be established to show farmers what can be done to reclaim their parched lands.

An advisory committee will be formed to guide the federal department of agriculture, which will co-operate with provincial agencies.

John Brown, Liberal, Ligar, Manitoba farmer for fifty-three years, believed the most good would come from grasses, strip farming and other cultural methods.

The minister said no one must be too optimistic over the scheme. Dams would be built to conserve water but that might or might not produce rain. The main objective was to raise the morale of the people and try to prepare for another drought cycle.

While supporting the bill Hon. W. R. Meighen, Liberal, Meville, Saskatchewan, thought the government should have acted sooner.

SHAKE-UP IN ALBERTA C.C.F.

Canadian Press
Calgary, April 12.—Clarification of the relationship between the organizations affiliated in the Co-operative Commonwealth Federation provincially will be sought by the Calgary council of the Canadian Labor party.

The matter will be discussed at the provincial convention of the Labor party in Edmonton April 19, and the Calgary council will also urge the party present its nominees at the coming Alberta election as straight C.C.F. candidates.

The action of the local council follows the presentation at a recent meeting of a resolution urging Labor to merge with the present ally in the C.C.F.—the United Farmers of Alberta.

It was charged legislation adopted by the U.F.A. government at Edmonton had not been keeping with C.C.F. principles.

Ottawa, April 12.—In reports made public yesterday the "Victory Road" discredited some of the references finding no cause to take any action or recommending tariff changes as suggested.

The references were as follows: Increased protection on Canadian goods, increased protection on foreign goods, separate classification to most goods used in the food processing industry, and protection on top prices.

Girl's Bravery To Be Rewarded

Saanich Women's Institute Will Make Presentation to Lisette de Lure

The bravery of little Lisette de Lure, West Saanich heroine, who recently saved her father's life when he was attacked by an enraged bull, will be recognized at the Easter school closing, by the Saanich Women's Institute.

It was decided at the monthly meeting of the institute held Tuesday.

Arrangements were made to hold an old-time dance the first week in May. Easter gifts for two children at the soiree will be attended to by the visiting committee.

Mrs. Haddon, Mrs. E. Roehon and Mrs. M. Gilbert have arranged to hold a bridge and tea Tuesday afternoon, April 16, at the home of Mrs. T. Haddon, 4444 Avenue, the proceeds to be sent to Lady Beaudouin for the cancer fund as a donation from the institute.

After the business meeting, Mrs. M. Gilbert introduced Miss Jenkins of the Saanich Health Centre, who gave a very instructive talk on the aims and objects of the public health nurse, and also answered questions brought up by the members. A vote of thanks was accorded Miss Jenkins. Tea was served by Mrs. E. Roehon and Mrs. G. Beckford.

RECKONS ODDS IN U.S. CRIME

Hollywood, Cal., April 12.—If the law of averages runs true to form, and if Capt. Don Wilkie, criminologist and ex-federal agent, has interpreted them correctly, the odds on major crimes in the United States are these:

Six to one the criminal will not be arrested.

Twelve to one he will not go to prison if caught and tried.

One hundred and twenty-four to one he will not be executed.

Capt. Wilkie, veteran detective and criminal hunter, came to Hollywood this week to act as technical director on "Federal Dick," a motion picture dealing with the Department of Justice and its efforts in tracking down law-breakers.

Capt. Wilkie blamed unscrupulous lawyers and the faulty conditions of the United States Court procedure for a large number of criminals who escaped conviction, even when brought to trial.

He said there are probably 118,000 murders at liberty in the United States to-day.

Crack Nanaimo Football Team Will Play Here To-morrow

THE SPORTS MIRROR

THE JAPANESE baseball invasion of North America is a reality. Baseball fans of the Pacific Coast are high in their praise of a Japanese professional team now touring through-out California. The Nippon team will head for the northwest early next month and will play in Victoria May 15 and 16. Japanese sportsmen were induced to send over a team of their best players to America to show how the game was played in the land of the rising sun. United States college teams have been able to win a majority of their games against Japanese college outfits during the last few years. And Japanese college squads have visited America for years.

But this is the first time Japanese professionals have come over, and the brand of ball they play is far superior to that displayed by amateur college teams. They carry only three pitchers. One of them is only seventeen years old, and is the only non-Japanese on the team. He is a Russian named to Japan. He is a giant in stature and has bewildering speed. So much that several Coast League clubs have offered him contracts. The rest of the squad is little Japanese, who turned in two fine performances against the San Francisco Minors and the Sacramento Giants in the Pacific Coast League. The team is 2 to 1 and kept the Coast League away from home until the final inning when two singles and an infield out produced a 6 to 5 victory.

The visit to Sacramento was a profitable one for the home club. The management liked the look and play of outfielder Wamito Morio, who is American-born and played with Sioux Falls in the Nebraska State League last year. He will join the Sacramento club after the tour. The team is expected to play in the middle west and the eastern seaboard and clash with minor league teams. If Americans and Canadians think they are going to have an easy time putting out the speedy Asians, they have another thing coming. Any group of ball players who are holding Pacific Coast League teams down to low scores and also beating them are not set-up by any means.

Baseball is now the national game of Japan. Encouraged by the tremendous interest developed by barnstorming troupes of major leagues, Japan intends to send an amateur team to the Berlin Olympic games.

Three wise men came out of the west—Art Lasky, Maurice Lasky and Roy Lasky. They went east with high hopes of capturing the golden fleece of pugilism—the world heavyweight boxing crown. They returned with badly shattered dreams, because the active one of the party was too young for his own good. And now Art Lasky has $5,000 to console him with a broken nose and a broken heart. Just because he could not stand the pointed barbs of criticism.

Several days before the Braddock fight, Lasky went out and hid an injured hand. A post-mortem was advised by his brother-manager and adviser. He refused to listen to this, since he had postponed a previous fight because of an attack of influenza. As Art put it, "As long as I am here I might as well go through with it. If I pass this up the fans will think I am yellow." He went through with it and took an unmerciful beating. His manager said, "You are a broken man, he is further back than where he started."

A week before the Braddock fight Lasky posted a cheque to meet champion Max Baer. He came out blithely stating that when he got through with Braddock he would be a champion. Baer, who had ridiculed his claims, would be forced to meet him. Art meant well. He did not figure on those little things which change the destiny of well-meaning boxers. Lasky, if you can call him that, played him false by thrusting a spurring mate's elbow in the path of a hard left hook and a small bone was broken. The result of the fight is now a matter of little history. Art Lasky is not through by any means. After a rest he plans to make another comeback. He made a rather successful one after being stopped by Charley Battaglia when a cut over his eye was so bad that the referee was forced to intervene. That was the first and only time he was stopped during his career.

Up-island Squad Will Meet Wests In Province Cup

Match at Athletic Park Expected to Draw Big Crowd; Visitors Strong

KICK-OFF IS SET FOR 2.45 O'CLOCK

Nanaimo's powerful football eleven will make another appearance here to-morrow afternoon to meet Victoria West in the first round proper of the Province Cup competition. The match will be played at the Athletic Park, starting at 2.45 o'clock, with W. J. Cull as referee. Over-time will be played if necessary.

With fine weather forecast and the ground in first class condition a fast match should result. A large crowd is certain to be in attendance as the Nanaimo eleven is a big drawing card with Victoria followers of the round ball sport.

Victoria West, won their way into the competition proper last Saturday by defeating Esquimalt in the local final of the series. The greenhorns, after being down 3 to 1 at half-time, turned in a great second half performance to win 4 to 2. Against the Coast City eleven the Wests will naturally field their strongest available squad.

JOE LOUIS TO FIGHT LAZER

Hard-hitting Detroit Heavyweight Battles Unknown at Chicago To-night

Chicago, April 12.—A twenty-one-year-old Jewish heavyweight, Joe Lazer, Peterson, N.J., will attempt to stop the amazing surge of Joe Louis, brown bomber of Detroit, in a ten-round battle in Chicago stadium to-night.

Not a man in boxing, with the exception of Lazer himself, figures he has a chance of achieving something that seventeen other heavyweights have failed to do. Lazer, undefeated in thirty-five professional bouts, is confident Louis is overrated.

Mack Admirer Of Hal Trotsky

Philadelphia, April 12.—Take a tip from Connie Mack—keep your eye on Hal Trotsky, Cleveland Indians' up-and-coming first baseman, as the lad likely to sit down in Babe Ruth's vacated throne in American League "Batter of West."

Connie ventured to predict that his own Athletics may grab off the pennant in as wide open a chase as the circuit has seen in years. "In Trotsky," Mack said, "the Indians have a wonderful first baseman who hit thirty-five homers last year, batted .340 for the season and drove in 145 runs. As he goes, so will go the Cleveland club."

Sudbury Wolves In Smashing Victory

Split Winnipeg Monarchs' Defence Wide Open to Score 7 to 2 Win and Tie Up Canadian Junior Hockey Final; Deciding Game To-morrow Night

Winnipeg, April 12.—Sudbury's rampaging Cub Wolves were on the loose in the last to-day. They ripped a jagged hole in the defence of Winnipeg Monarchs with a 7 to 2 victory, however yesterday evening, that secured up the junior title series for the Winnipeg team.

Art Stuart, slender but dynamic Sudbury left winger, was the menace to western hopes of winning the Dominion junior hockey title in two straight games. He bagged four goals and was one of the main reasons why the Wolves tried desperately in the second and third periods to pull the score out of the fire. The packed crowd of more than 4,500 were pulled from seats time and again. Successive rallies were thrown back by the "Chuck" Shannon, eastern defence expert, and the spearhead of the Wolves.

There was little organization in the Wolves' defence during the last minutes of the game. Fourteen penalties were handed out in the sixty minutes of play and these were equally divided between Sudbury and Winnipeg.

Sudbury ended the first period with a 2 to 1 lead, and still kept the one-goal margin at the end of the second period, when the score was 3 to 2. Adding another just before the half-way mark in the final period, they rammed in three more for a five-goal margin in the last three minutes of play.

ANGELS STILL SETTING PACE

Los Angeles Only Club With Undeclared Record in Coast Baseball League

The Oakland club allowed the San Francisco Seals their first victory of the season, yesterday and thereby dropped back amongst the also-rans, and left Los Angeles with the only perfect average in the Coast Baseball League to-day.

The Oaks lost 9 to 4 on their home field. The Seals won in the eighth when a single, a double and an error by shortstop Moleworth gave them two runs. Outfielder Keyes hit a homer in the next half of the inning.

Los Angeles led the Seals in the fifth with four-run rally. Seattle downed the San Francisco Missions 10 to 5, and took the series, two games out of three. A double by Jerry Donovan, right-fielder, and a homer by Stan Schmalitz, was announced by Major Roger Montath, president of the association, who urged members to support the drive.

Weakened Arsenal To Battle Wolves

English First Division Football Leaders Will Be Without Copping For Hard Match in the Midlands; Sunderland Plays Sheffield Wednesday

Canadian Press
London, April 12.—Sunderland's chances for English cover supremacy were given a crushing blow yesterday, and as a consequence of Manchester City's 1 to 0 victory at Maine Road, Arsenal leads the closing drive for the championship with a margin of three points.

The three clubs each have six games to play before the close of the season, Arsenal is on top of the heap with forty-nine points, Sunderland has forty-six, and Manchester City, forty-five. While the Gunners have a distinct advantage, the heavy Easter holiday programme may result in a change in the position of the clubs.

COPIING LAYED UP

The Londoners will be without Copping, their international left half, when they visit the Midlands, tomorrow, in a tough game with Wolverhampton Wanderers. The player is suffering from knee cartilage trouble, necessitating an operation. The Gunners are enthusiastic over their chances of winning the championship three years in succession.

Tottenham Hotspur cup of bitterness is overflowing. Added to their desperate position at the bottom of the league, further casualties are reported, and the composition of the team to play Birmingham at White Hart Lane was not decided on yesterday.

Who will accompany the Spurs into the second division is a question agitating supporters of several clubs. Middlebrough, Leeds, Birmingham and Leicester are all in the danger zone.

Sunderland plays Sheffield Wednesday, cup finalists at Roker Park, while Manchester City visits Grimsby. Leaders of the second division, Bolton, are away to Manchester United, and a point will greatly enhance their chances of promotion to the first division. The B team will field their strongest team at White Hart Lane and will be at full strength with the return of Rowley at inside left. West Ham United and Bolton Wanderers also have eyes on the first division.

Charlton Athletic is at home to Watford in the third division, southern section, but the Valley Parade outfit is practically certain of promotion. A different situation exists in the northern section, where Doncaster Rovers secured leadership yesterday by defeating their rivals, Colchester, in a one-team show.

The champions are six points in front of Celtic, with the end of the season in sight. While there is no doubt about leadership, the collar campaign has become involved in a great fight to stay in the league.

Two of these clubs, St. Mirren and Ayr United, have created quite a stir during the last month, and have collected much-needed points at the expense of some of the leaders.

Bangers, who qualified to meet Hamilton Academicals in the cup final by defeating Hearts, 3 to 0, return to league warfare tomorrow, meeting Aberdeen on the latter's ground.

Celtic is at home to the thirteenth place Ardronians and should come out on top. Hamilton Academicals had two games in two days during the week, splitting the points. They are at home to Queen of South in seventeenth position. The victors may spring a surprise on the third round. Hearts play away from home at Kilmarnock.

Ayr United has a good chance of catching up to third place Rangers, who are at home to East Fife, while the Celtic squad has an open day. St. Bernard's, in third place, are at home to East Duff.

NEW HOCKEY RULES MADE

Canarian Amateur Body Makes Regulations For Players Seeking Pro Berths

Montreal, April 11.—A new rule governing amateur hockey players trying out with professional teams was formed by the Canadian Amateur Hockey Association at its annual meeting here today.

Permission will not be given to amateurs to try out in the big leagues after December 1 of the current season and those players "shall be barred from participation in amateur games until they have filed with the amateur association a report of their professional activities."

Junior players will now have to present more definite evidence of payment according to the new C.A.H.A. decision reached today. Each application for junior registration must be supported by a baptismal certificate, letter from the Dominion Immigration Department or a school enrollment card showing his age.

Concurring with a petition from the Ontario Hockey Association to set back the date when sectional championships must be declared, the C.A.H.A. decided to extend the date when all series must be completed by five days.

Western champions must now be declared by March 18 instead of March 5 and eastern champions are given until March 17 instead of March 12.

Ruth's Record Interesting

On Eve of First Campaign in National League Babe Has 723 Home Runs

New York, April 12.—A little stock-taking on the glamorous twenty-year American League star of Babe Ruth as he prepares to shift his big bat to the National League and perhaps start another chapter in the saga of making life miserable for pitchers.

Babe's all-time home-run king has batted out 723 home runs—108 in pennant campaigning and fifteen in world series warfare. The total is just twenty-seven shy of his life time goal of 750. Sixteen of the hits came with the bases loaded.

Pitchers contributing to the carnage numbered 218. The Babe poked 498 round trippers off right, handed hurries. Southpaws were slapped 228 times.

Next to New York, where the Babe set 946 drives soaring over the pinnacles of the Polo Grounds and Yankee Stadium, the Philadelphia Park was Ruth's favorite. He trotted around the bases there sixty-eight times.

Rube Walberg, now of the Boston Red Sox, is president of the "Babe Ruth Club," composed of the 218 pitchers who contributed to Ruth's official home-run record.

Walberg, although a southpaw, was Ruth's victim no less than seventeen times. George Davis, a right hander, fought with the Detroit Tigers, was nicked fourteen times, bringing him the vice-presidency.

W/ LAT the whole responsibility of making happy homes upon women, yet I have never known a really happy home that did not have a cheerful, good-natured, domestic man at the head of it.

Of course it is a quiet thought, and one that has crossed the minds of few men, that they are in only one responsible for their homes beyond paying the bills for their upkeep, but nevertheless it is the man's attitude toward his home that strikes the keynote of it. He does far more toward making it what it is than his wife does.

If he loves his home and takes a pride in it, the chances are he will be buying it. Anyway, he will live in an attractive place in a good neighborhood. There will be pretty furniture. Good rugs. The grounds and surroundings. If he takes an interest in the housekeeping, his wife will be a good cook and a thrifty manager. If he is fond of his children, they will be well-reared, good-mannered and do well in school.

It is the man who regards their home as nothing but a place in which to eat and sleep who live in shabby apartments and unpainted houses, who have discouraged wives who are sloppy housekeepers, and whose children grow up on the street into undisciplined little hoodlums.

In reality, it is the husband for more than the wife who forms the background and makes the atmosphere of the home, and it is strange that men do not perceive this obvious fact and see that if they want a happy home they must help make it themselves. It isn't a job that they can wish off on their wives as they can their social obligations and their family correspondence.

Yet thousands of men do this and then, because they did not get the ideal home that was a place of cheer and peace and rest of which they had dreamed and for which they really married, they are disgruntled and blame the results solely on their wives. They make their homes a dumping ground for all the temper and nerves and surmises that they had to suppress in their dealings with their bosses, customers and clients. Then they complain about how dull and depressing domesticity is and how lacking in pep and vivacity their wives are.

They eat their meals in an atmosphere of growls and criticisms and then wonder that their wives do not think it worth while to spend hours over the kitchen stove getting good dinners for them. They never speak of their children except to find fault with them, or to threaten them with punishment. Then they fast themselves daily ill-mannered homes their youngsters display no affection toward them.

Of course, then not, when you hear a man complaining that he has an unhappy home it is his own fault. He has not only done nothing to help make it happy, but he has given his wife the insupportable task of trying to make a happy home in spite of him, and not being a miracle-worker, she couldn't do it. For how can a woman make a bright and cheery home when there is a grouchy man sitting around who either snags her head off when she speaks to him, or else sulks in silence in a way that sends the domestic temperature down to zero and makes the whole household want to cuddle up to the refrigerator to get warm?

Now can a woman make a peaceful home when she is married to a man who flies into a tantrum at the slightest provocation or no provocation at all, and with whom she dare not open up a conversation for fear of starting a row? Now can she make him a loving and tender home in which he is sure of finding sympathy, if he ever shows her or the children any affection at all, if he refuses to care for the bills and makes her feel that he regards his home and his family as nothing but a burden?

No woman on earth can make a happy home alone and unaided. She may smile like a Cheshire cat, she may cook like a chef, she may keep her house as clean and orderly as a hospital ward. She may conjure flies, spiders and duck soup out of the air, she may be a death at bargain hunting, she may possess a sympathy for her husband and her children as a quack doctor, but still all her efforts will be a flop unless husband does his bit and adds his quota to the household budget.

No young man who is thinking about getting married and who wants a happy home must first see that the woman he goes for is not going to depend mostly upon himself. If he can't help make it, he can't turn the whole business over to his wife and expect her to get results alone. He can't put a girl down in a home that he fills with gloom and expect her to radiate enough sunshine to keep it bright and gay. He can't expect her to take much interest in the home when he takes none at all in it. He can't expect her to meet him with a glad, warm smile when he comes home at 3 a.m. after having been out on a joyride with some other woman.

No, making a home is a two-handed job. No one person can do it alone, not even a woman. It takes a man and a woman doing teamwork to pull off a satisfactory job. And especially it needs the co-operation of the husband.
